

EXCHANGE STUDENTS AT THE LAW SCHOOL

GENERAL RULES ON HOW TO PREPARE THE LEARNING AGREEMENT

SCHOOL OF LAW AND DEPARTMENTS

The following degree courses are available at the Law School:

- 2 single-cycle degree courses in Law, one in Padova Campus and one in Treviso Campus and
- 1 Bachelor degree course in Employment Consultancy in Padova.

Exchange students can also choose among the course units offered at Treviso Campus, although they should consider that it is situated 60 kms far from Padova (1 hour by train). Attendance, however, is not mandatory in most cases.

Two are the Departments belonging to the Law School, both situated at Palazzo Bo:

- Dipartimento di Diritto Pubblico, Internazionale e Comunitario
- Dipartimento di Diritto Privato e Critica del Diritto \(DDPCD\)

You will need this information when you will be asked to fill in our online study plan, after a couple of month from your arrival.

RESTRICTIONS AT THE SCHOOL OF LAW

Exchange students are allowed to choose almost any of the course units offered by the Law School although there are some restrictions:

1. “DDP-P” course units are NOT available for exchange students: these are special and reduced modules only for double degree students!!! The code “DDP-P” is specified next to the course unit name, as shown below:

GI0270	GIP7082323	DIRITTO AMMINISTRATIVO	9	Secondo semestre	ITA	CRISTIANA

2. You have to pay attention to “Corsi Integrati (C.I.)” which are composed of two or more modules. For example “History of Modern and Contemporary Law and Foundations of European Law (C.I.) is a Corso Integrato made of “Foundations of European Law (Module A)” and “History of Modern and Contemporary Law (Module B)”. It is compulsory to sit the exam and successfully pass all the modules otherwise they will not appear in your final transcript of records. You can't choose only one module.
