Annex 1

The certificates accepted are those recognised by the University Language Centre (<https://cla.unipd.it/test-linguistici/certificazioni/>), unless otherwise indicated in the call for applications for each destination. The main types of certificates are listed below.

For all languages, mother-tongue students are recognised a C2 level. Native speakers are considered to be students who have attended at least the entire secondary school cycle and obtained the relative diploma (corresponding to the DIPLOMA DI MATURITA') in a country in which the language being assessed is considered an official language.

Degree courses held entirely in a foreign language (English or other) will be considered equivalent to a certified level B2 (if a vehicular language) and C1 in the case of an official language.

Secondary school courses completed at international schools in Italy or abroad (e.g. International Baccalaureate - IB Diploma Programme) or within the framework of educational cooperation between ministries (e.g. ESABAC) are considered equivalent to a certified B2.

Curricular language examinations passed as part of a degree course will also be considered valid, with the stated level. In the absence of any indication, they will be considered equivalent to an A2 level. For more details on the levels attributed to UNIPD examinations by the various Departments, please refer to Annex 2.

TALs and other tests conducted by the Centro Linguistico di Ateneo (CLA) will be considered on the basis of the declared level.
