

Opening of the call for applications for the Italian Junior Professional Officers Programme
(JPO Programme)
2025 Edition

The call for applications for 56 positions in the Italian Junior Professional Officers Programme is open. 11 positions are assigned to different entities of the United Nations Secretariat and 45 to 23 international organizations, for a total of 23 duty stations. 54 positions are reserved for candidates of Italian nationality. 2 positions are reserved for candidates from developing countries.

The job descriptions of the JPO positions for which candidates can apply are available on the webpage <https://www.undesa.it/index.php/jpo-programme/jpo-positions/>.

The deadline for submitting applications to the 2025 round of the Italian JPO Programme is 16 June 2025 at 3 p.m. (Italy local time).

The Italian JPO Programme is a multilateral development cooperation initiative sponsored by the Government of Italy through the Directorate General for Development Cooperation of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation and implemented by the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (UN/DESA). It enables qualified Italian nationals and nationals of eligible developing countries to gain work experience with international organizations for a period of two years, with the possibility of a further one-year extension.

The purpose of the Programme is two-fold: a) to assist international organizations in carrying out their activities by providing them with gratis skilled personnel; b) to allow qualified young professionals seeking an international career to make a relevant experience that could broaden their chances of recruitment in international organizations or in the international field.

Interested candidates will need to access the dedicated online platform and, following the instructions, will be able to submit their application to the chosen position(s). Candidates can apply to a maximum of two positions.

The general admission requirements for Italian nationals are the following:

- Born on or after 1 January 1994 (1 January 1993 for graduates in Medicine; 1 January 1991 for graduates in Medicine who have already been awarded a post-graduate medical specialization degree)
- Italian nationality
- Fluency in English and Italian (in all four areas: Read, Speak, Write, Understand)
- Advanced university degree awarded before the application deadline, such as:
  - Laurea Magistrale/Specialistica
  - Laurea Magistrale a ciclo unico
  - University Master's degree awarded after a Laurea/Laurea Triennale
  - University Master's degree awarded after a Bachelor's degree.

For admission to the Italy-funded JPO Programme candidates from developing countries must meet the following general requirements:

- Hold the nationality of one of the developing countries eligible for the position<sup>1</sup>
- Born on or after 1 January 1994 (1 January 1993 for graduates in Medicine; 1 January 1991 for graduates in Medicine who have already been awarded a post-graduate medical specialization degree)
- Fluency in English (in all four areas: Read, Speak, Write, Understand)
- Advanced university degree awarded before the application deadline, such as:
  - Laurea Magistrale/Specialistica
  - Laurea Magistrale a ciclo unico
  - University Master's degree awarded after a Laurea/Laurea Triennale
  - University Master's degree awarded after a Bachelor's degree.

Both for candidates of Italian nationality and candidates of foreign nationality admitted to the Programme, the specific requirements for each position - such as years of professional experience, additional languages, specific academic qualifications or training, required competencies, etc. - are indicated in job descriptions posted online.

Interested candidates are encouraged to read carefully the How to Apply webpage before starting the application process.

Applications to the Programme can only be submitted online through the Online Web Application tool (OWA) of the UN/DESA Office in Rome. Applications submitted through other channels will not be taken into consideration.

For additional information, please consult the relevant webpages on www.undesa.it or email the UN/DESA Office in Rome at JPOinfo@undesa.it.
