Twenty things I wish I'd known when I started my PhD

Recent PhD graduate Lucy A. Taylor shares the advice she and her colleagues wish they had received.

Dr. Lucy A. Taylor

Organization

Decide on your goals / organize your work early

Aim to publish your research

Write down everything - keep track of everything you do

Backup everything!

It's never too early to start writing your thesis

The best thesis is a finished thesis

Communication

Discuss expectations with your supervisor

Be honest with your supervisor

Attend departmental seminars and lab-group meetings

Present your research

Socialize with your lab group and other students

Lifestyle and mindset

Research will not always go according to your plans

Don't compare yourself with others

Never struggle on your own – ask for help

Maintain a healthy work–life balance

Have a life outside work

Enjoy your PhD!
