MOVING ITALIANNESSE

Programme	MOVING ITALIANNESSE – Research opportunities in Argentina for thesis work – DISSGEA students
Overall description	MOVING ITALIANNESSE is an exchange program that promotes collaboration between Italian and Argentine universities. It is structured around specific Working Packages, covering various aspects such as student and faculty mobility, double degree programs, and joint research projects.
Contents	The Dissgea project aims to promote student mobility to two partner universities in Argentina – Pontificia Universidad Católica (UCA) and Universidad de Córdoba – to foster knowledge and field research on topics related to industrial heritage, business history, the transfer of techniques and knowledge, local development, and the history of Italian migration to Argentina. Students will work both individually and within structured research paths proposed by faculty members from the participating universities. Through field research, library and archival work, as well as collaborations with foundations and cultural associations, students will gain a deeper understanding of the historical, economic, cultural, and heritage connections between Italy and Argentina. Additionally, these activities will support the development of joint teaching and training programs between the involved universities.
Number of places	2 (1 place for Pontificia Universidad Católica - UCA and 1 place for Universidad de Córdoba)
Programme dates	Mobility can take place between April 2025 and February 2026.
