

CAMPUS TOUR

The University of Padua organizes for international students enrolled in the first year, in-person campus visits consisting of an outdoor-only walking tour with a currently enrolled student. Walking tours last approximately 1 hour. These tours will give you the opportunity to see directly the most relevant didactic and administrative facilities. You will also have the chance to see study rooms, canteens, libraries and other important sites for your university life in Padua.

Give a look at the different options down below and book your tour clicking here:
