International Business for Small and Medium Enterprises – MIBS (academic path in “Supporting SME Internationalisation and Web Marketing”; academic path in “Finance and Law for International Business”)

Professional outlets: The Master aims at training expert professional profile in the management of internationalization at management level and business processes, making the student able to define and evaluate a project idea, preparing a business plan and establishing a marketing plan, including through the tools of the web and social media. The sector of employment will be in companies and organizations, where the propensity to internationalization is high.

The professional figure created for the course "Supporting SME Internationalization and Web marketing" is that of junior manager related to the activities of export managers, project managers, global supply chain managers, marketing managers, social media managers and similar activities.

The "Finance and Law for International Trade" path job opportunities for are the export/import offices of firms, banks, private and public associations or consortia, law firms or business consulting practices involved in commercial or financial transactions in different currencies and/or with different countries, as well as by the national or international organizations directly or indirectly engaged in the practice or regulation of international commerce and finance.

Director: Fiorenza Belussi
Level: 1
Duration: one-year
Period: November 2020 / September 2021
Teaching method: taught class / distance learning
Language: English
Short Specialization degree’s location: Dipartimento di Scienze Economiche e aziendali "M. Fanno" – DSEA, Via Ugo Bassi, 1 - 35131 Padova
Places available: min: 15 / max: 40
Registration fee: Euro 6.324,50
Criteria for selection: evaluation of qualifications and possible oral examination
Application submission deadline: October 2nd, 2020
Website: www.economia.unipd.it/en/master-mibs
For information: 049 8271228; master.economia@unipd.it