12, 19, 26 MAY
3 JUNE

VIA BEATO
PELLEGRINO, 37

PADOVA, 2022

Organised by students from the Department of Political Science, Law and International Studies (SPGI), these meetings bring young professionals, students and community members together to exchange perspectives on working in the human rights field, thinking outside the box to apply human rights in all industries, promoting human rights approaches on the university campus, and a special session launching season two of the Humanitas Podcast.

Initiative financed with the contribution of the University of Padova
