

INSTRUCTIONS

Election of Students' Representatives at the academic two-year International Student Council for 2018-2020.

The international Student Council, will be representative organ of the international students enrolled at the University of Padua.

International Students, as regulated by the resolution of the Academic Senate, are those who have non-Italian citizenship and the foreign title to apply for the first useful enrolment to an Italian university.

A list, containing all the names of the international students (as defined just above), has been published on the website of the Athenaeum.

The General Affairs Office of the University of Padua, has asked international students to communicate the names of the eligible persons who had not therein been included.

After that, it is important to define in a better way the International Student Council.

The International Student Council will be composed, except for insufficient applications, of a number of twelve international students, from geographical-linguistic-cultural areas that had already been identified by the university within the domain of international relations (China, Japan, Korea, Vietnam and Singapore; Remaining Asia and Oceania; Latin America and The Caribbean; Europe; USA and Canada; Africa).

The regular enrolment shall be refined with both the payment of the first instalment of the university fees for the academic year of 2018-2019, and the payment of instalments for previous years.

All students who have undergone disciplinary sanctions on the part of the university are excluded from the passive electorate together with whom, in the course of study in which he is regularly enrolled, has a higher number of enrolments than the legal or normal duration of the course plus one.

With D.R. Rep. N. 436/2019 of 5 February 2019, the "Elezioni suppletive delle Rappresentanze degli Studenti nell'International Student Council per l'Area 1 - Cina, Giappone, Corea, Vietnam, Singapore (Asia Sinica), l'Area 3 - America Latina e Caribe e l'Area 5 - Usa e Canada, per lo scorcio del biennio accademico 2018 – 2020", were cast.

So, please, remember that you may vote only for:

- 1) Area 1: China, Japan, Korea, Vietnam, Singapore (Asia Sinica),
- 2) Area 3: Latin America and Caribe,
- 3) Area 5: USA and Canada, for the foreshortening of the academic year 2018 - 2020.

In order to be elected, it is necessary to apply.

The application must be dispatched by means of a special system, available in the reserved web area (uniweb), from 9.00 a.m. on Tuesday, 13 february 2019 and until 1.00 p.m. on Tuesday, 26 february 2019, without the need to proceed to the next level of subscription.

The votes and the establishment of the International Student Council will be held on March 6th and 7th 2019, by electronic means.

Now, on the university site (link_ <http://www.unipd.it/elezioni-rappresentanze-studenti>), you can find the election announcement of the International Student Council, together with the division of different states by geographical-linguistic-cultural area, in order to determine the electorate of each of them.
