Course Title and Description
IPSE – International Politics and Security Summer School (3rd edition)

The 3rd edition of the Summer School in “International Politics & Security” aims at connecting students to the international environment and expanding research networks.
The overarching theme of this edition is conflict management, focusing on the response of authorities, the role of universities in conflict management and in the Afghanistan case. Moreover, this edition will be organized in the form of a hybrid event, gathering both face-to-face participants and online interventions.
Involved students will publish 1 article (elaborated by MA students in European and Global Studies, under the mentorship of this project’s staff) by 2022.
