

MID-TERM REVIEW MEETING

JPI Oceans Projects: Underwater noise in the Marine Environment

20-21 June 2024

Padova, Italy

INTRODUCTION

Location: Palazzo “Fiore di Botta”, Department of Biology of the University of Padova, via del Pescarotto, 8, 35131 Padova, Italy

The joint mid-term review meeting of the successful projects funded through the JPI Oceans Projects call on ‘underwater noise in the marine environment’ serves three main objectives:

- I. Progress Evaluation: Assess the advancements and outputs of each project against initial expectations.
- II. Strengthen Collaboration: Enhance project cooperation and coordination. Share interim findings, refine strategies through shared insights, and identify collaborative opportunities to address common hurdles, ensuring alignment with JPI Oceans’ strategic objectives.
- III. Maximise impact: Plan for impactful dissemination of results and stakeholder engagement. Focus on leveraging project outcomes to influence policy, industry practices, and scientific discourse, aiming to maximize the societal benefits of the projects.

The mid-term review meeting will be held back to back with the annual Consortium Assemblies on June, 19, 2024.
